

ROOSEVELT IS IN THE COLLAR.

Former President Addresses Ohio Convention.

Big Business and Self Government Discussed.

La Follette Referred to by Him Only Once.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] COLUMBUS (O.) Feb. 21.—"Big Business," the keynote of the American people for self-government, the recall of judges, and praise for the progressive legislation in Wisconsin instituted and furthered by Senator Robert M. La Follette when he was Governor, were topics discussed by Theodore Roosevelt in an address today before the Ohio Constitutional Convention here. Col. Roosevelt chose as his subject, "A Charter of Democracy."

What he termed "Big Business," Col. Roosevelt had this to say: "The anti-trust law does good in so far as it can be invoked against combinations which really are monopolies or which restrict production or which artificially raise prices. But in so far as its workings are uncertain or as it threatens corporations which have not been guilty of anti-social conduct, it does harm. There should be a fixed government policy which shall clearly define and punish wrong-doing and give in advance full information to any man as to just what he can and just what he cannot do."

As to the fitness of the American people for self-government, Col. Roosevelt said: "Many eminent lawyers believe that the American people are not fitted for popular government and that it is necessary to keep the judiciary independent of the majority of the people. I take absolute issue with all of those who hold such a position."

Of the recall of judges he said: "RECALL AN EXPEDIENT. The question is one of expediency merely. Each community has the right to try the experiment for itself in whatever shape it pleases. I do not believe in adopting the recall as a last resort which has become clearly evident that no other course will achieve the desired result."

Senator La Follette was mentioned by name as follows: "Following Senator La Follette a number of practical workers and thinkers in Wisconsin have turned that State into an experimental laboratory of wise governmental action in aid of social and industrial justice. They have initiated that kind of progressive government which means not only the preservation of true democracy, but the extension of the principle of true democracy into industrialism, as well as into politics."

Col. Roosevelt said in part: "I hold it to be the duty of every public servant and of every man in public or in private life holds a position of leadership in thought or action, to earnestly and fearlessly endeavor to guide his fellow-countrymen to right decision; but I emphatically dissent from the view that it is either wise or necessary to try to develop methods which under the Constitution will automatically prevent the people from deciding for themselves what governmental action they deem just and proper."

"It is impossible to invent constitutional devices which will prevent the popular will from being effective for wrong without also preventing it from being effective for right. The only safe course to follow in this great American Democracy is to provide for making the popular judgment really effective. But it is a false constitutionalism, a false statesmanship, to endeavor by the exercise of a despotic ingenuity to seem to give the people full power and at the same time to trick them out of it."

"Yet this is precisely what is done in every case where the State permits its representatives, whether on the bench or in the Legislature or in executive offices, to declare that it has not the power to right grave social wrongs, or that any of the officers created by the people, and rightfully the servants of the people, can set themselves up to be the masters of the people. Constitution-makers should make it clear beyond the shadow of a doubt that the people in their legislative capacity have the power to enact into law any measure they deem necessary for the betterment of social and industrial conditions."

"REAL PROGRESSIVES." "I hold that he is the real progressive, that he is the genuine champion of the people who endeavors to shape the policy alike of the nation and of the several States so as to encourage legitimate and honest business at the same time that he wars against all crookedness and injustice and unfairness and tyranny in the business world. This is the reason why I have for so many years insisted as regards our national government, that it is with futile waste of energy to endeavor to correct the evils of big business by an attempt to restore business conditions as they were in the middle of the last century, before the railways and telegraphs had rendered larger business organizations both inevitable and desirable."

"The effort to restore such conditions and to trust for justice solely to such proposed restoration, is as foolish as if we should attempt to arm our troops with the flintlocks of Washington's Continentals instead of modern weapons of precision. Flintlock legislation of the kind that seeks to prohibit all combinations, good or bad, is bound to fail, and the effort, in so far as it accomplishes anything at all, merely means that some of the worst combinations are not checked and that honest business is checked."

"What is needed is, first, the recognition that modern business conditions have come to stay, in so far as at least as these conditions mean that business must be done in larger units, and then the cool-headed and resolute determination to introduce an effective method of regulating big corporations so as to help legitimate business as an incident to thoroughly and completely safeguarding the interests of the people as a whole."

"So much for the ends of government, and I have, of course, merely sketched in outline what the ends should be. Now, for the machinery by which these ends are to be achieved; and here again, remember, I only sketch in outline and do not were reported in the forenoon, but in the afternoon nearly all traffic was suspended.

Schools were dismissed when anxious parents called for their children, and the large mercantile establishment closed at 4 o'clock and let their hundreds of employees begin early the battle to reach their homes. Weather forecasters promise an abatement of the snow and wind before morning, and a fall in temperature to 18 deg. above zero.

More than 500 telephone operators employed by the Chicago Telephone Company were housed at downtown hotels tonight because of the storm.

SOUTH HARD HIT BY THE STORMS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reports to New Orleans from various parts of the South show the losses in storms last night and early this morning to be far heavier than at first supposed, and it is not improbable the death list will be swollen as reports from remote districts are received. In addition to property losses, the death rate among cattle, particularly in middle Mississippi, East Texas and Northwest Louisiana, will be large. Owing to the season of the year, crop damage is slight, except where truck gardens in West Florida were hurt.

Although eight persons were killed at Shreveport, La., the winds were higher at Pensacola, Fla., than anywhere else. The official figure is sixty-two miles an hour, but mariners and others claim a greater velocity for the gale. Shipping in the Florida port suffered minor damage. Around Meridian, Miss., there was a terrific windstorm, accompanied by hail of record proportions.

The Rev. W. T. Carroll, Methodist minister at Klondike, ten miles north of there, was hurt fatally and several members of his family were injured when his house was wrecked. The towns of Chunky, Porterville, Burwell and Zero report much damage while territory within a radius of forty miles of Meridian suffered.

Snow fell today at several points in Mississippi as far south as Port Gibson. In Texas, San Antonio and Austin and much territory thereabouts were visited by a terrific wind, many buildings were wrecked or unroofed, wires were put out of service, trees blown down.

Railroad companies are hard hit on account of fallen telegraph poles. Much suffering is reported in the wake of the cyclone, which swept through port, La., and swept northward, leaving at least eight dead and a score injured in its wake. Telephone and telegraph wires are prostrated and much difficulty is experienced in getting accurate information from the territory which suffered most.

Large numbers of houses were demolished and great damage to livestock is the report coming from Stamps, Ark. That section was visited by a terrific hail and windstorm on Tuesday. Fall is large as eggs fell for almost an hour. No loss of life is reported.

A light snow was falling over this section and there is much suffering in the stricken districts today. Lexington, Miss., north of Jackson, reports the killing of five persons, all negroes, when the wind demolished a big cotton gin in which the men had taken shelter.

SIXTEEN INCHES OF "DRIVEN" SNOW. [BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] ST. LOUIS, Feb. 21.—Sixteen inches of snow, driven by a forty-mile wind with a minimum temperature of 24 degrees, were features of a storm which swept Eastern Missouri, Southern Illinois and Western Kentucky today.

The wind drifted the snow to a depth of several feet, hampering traffic on all transportation lines. Street car and railroad traffic at Taylorville, Ill., are at a standstill. Baltimore and Ohio passenger train No. 125, which left there at 9:30 p.m., has been stalled since 1 a.m. five miles west of the city.

The passengers have no food, but are making themselves as comfortable as possible, and are keeping warm, as the train carries plenty of coal.

Passenger train No. 1 on the Chicago and Illinois Midland, has been snowbound all day at Kincaid, six miles west of Taylorville, and a relief train sent out from Taylorville failed to reach the passenger train and it too is snowbound.

WARMER WEATHER FLOODS IN KANSAS. [BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] KANSAS CITY, Feb. 21.—Sunshine and a temperature of from 25 to 30 deg. above zero over Kansas and Western Missouri today brought relief from the blizzard of Tuesday that had stalled railroad traffic and delayed reports told of three trains being snowbound in Southeastern Kansas and one in Northern Oklahoma, but work trains had been sent to the scene to clear the tracks.

Railroads in general throughout the storm district have straightened out their time schedules and in most cases trains are running practically on time. The rise in the mercury aided in clearing the tracks of the four inches of snow.

In Southwest Missouri, where the snowfall in some cases was ten inches or more, trains were stalled, but a semblance of order had been restored.

Unless there is a further rise in the Kaw River here, sending more ice against the piers of the James-street bridge, closed to traffic two days ago, it is believed the structure will stand. The Western River pilots warn of weather for Kansas tomorrow, and if a thaw comes higher water is certain.

Men were stationed at the bridge with long poles and dynamite to protect the piers. When unable to push the ice away from the structure the explosive was used.

FROST IN EL PASO; HEAVY LOSS IN TEXAS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] DALLAS (Tex.) Feb. 21.—Heavy wind storms accompanied in some sections of Texas by heavy snowfall and thousands of dollars damage today by wrecking buildings and demolishing telegraph and telephone service. In the Panhandle, the storm accompanied by four inches of snow, disarranged railroad schedules.

San Antonio and Austin, where the damage appears greatest, report a wind averaging seventy to 100 miles an hour, which unroofed many resi-

Foreign Coal Miners Promise to Go Out on Strike.

Conditions in the Islands Are Becoming Worse.

Factories and Iron Mills Laying Off Men.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] LONDON, Feb. 21.—The committee of the International Miners' Federation, who met in conference today, adjourned until tomorrow. No decision was announced.

It became known that both the French and Belgian miners societies have assured the British miners they can rely on their co-operation. The railway men in the United Kingdom have asked the executive of the amalgamated society of railway servants to issue instructions for the guidance of the railway workers in the event of a strike.

THE WORST BLIZZARD OF MANY A YEAR. [BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] DETROIT (Mich.) Feb. 21.—The worst blizzard experienced in Michigan in years was responsible today for the death of at least one person and the injury of possibly twenty-five others as the result of collisions between trains and street cars. Steam and electric traffic is paralyzed in all directions. Several trains are blocked in snowdrifts.

One passenger was killed and several were hurt near Vicksburg, when a freight train crashed into a stalled passenger train on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road.

Two passenger trains on the Fruit Belt line between Kalamazoo and South Haven are buried in great snowdrifts. At Jackson, all Michigan Central trains on lines running to Grand Rapids and Bay City have been canceled.

WORST WINDSTORM FOR SEVERAL YEARS. [BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SAN BERNARDINO (Cal.) Feb. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the most furious windstorms in years struck this city tonight, uprooting trees, tearing down signs and for a time, making street travel an impossibility. During the storm a flock of several hundred cranes was driven down in the business district, many being easily captured by hand.

Gale in Pensacola. [BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] PENSACOLA (Fla.) Feb. 21.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Considerable damage was sustained by small shipping in the Pensacola Harbor today, when a sixty-mile gale blew over the part of the gulf coast. Pensacola was cut off from wire communication for a time. The damage to property here was small.

Frozen to Death. [BY A. P. Night Wire.] Alex Barge, a farmer living here, was frozen to death in the storm of Tuesday. His body was found today.

EMIGRANTS GOING ABOARD. Ernest Chadwick of Several Alliances and Oakland Girl Heard from at Montreal En Route.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Captain of Detectives Walter J. Peterson of Oakland was notified tonight by Herman Milbrath, father of Anna Milbrath, the Oakland young woman who was bigamous married by Ernest Chadwick, alias "Sir" Harry Westwood, before his recent flight to escape arrest for having broken his parole from San Quentin Penitentiary, that the couple were in Montreal on February 19.

This information was conveyed to Mr. Milbrath in a telegram from his son, Benjamin Milbrath of Gary, Ind. The latter stated that he had received today a postcard from his sister, mailed in the Canadian city last Monday, announcing that she and her husband were on their way to England on a honeymoon trip. She added that she was very happy.

CITIZENS IN THE MAKING. Pacific Northwest Immigration Congress Considers Problems Incident to Canal Opening.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] TACOMA (Wash.) Feb. 21.—The problem of making American Citizens out of the great influx of immigrants expected to follow the opening of the Panama Canal, was touched upon in the first day's session of the Pacific Northwest Immigration congress here today. Delegates from Washington, Oregon, Idaho and British Columbia, were in attendance, with several speakers from California, to the total of 188, representing forty-one cities. Six Mayors were among the delegates. Gov. Hay of Washington will attend tomorrow.

Committees were named and a resolution introduced endorsing "a domestic immigration policy, which will give aliens authoritative information about unoccupied lands and assist them in getting homes."

WELL OFF FINANCIALLY. State Has More Money in Treasury Than at Any Previous Time in Its History.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21.—That the State has more money on hand at the present than at any other time in its history was shown when the members of the State Board of Control made the monthly count of money in the State Treasury today. The total amount on hand is $14,281,409, and of this amount there is in actual cash $4,574,445. School certificates for $503,054, while the money loaned out to the banks amounts to $5,500,646. This latter is bringing the State interest at the rate of 2 and 2 1/2 per cent, and it is estimated that the yearly revenue to the State from money put out at interest, is $190,000.

HELD FOR PORTLAND. Honey-moon of a California Girl is Rudely Interrupted in New Orleans by Her Husband's Arrest.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 20.—Harry Bladen, aged 24, who is said to be wanted by the police of Portland, Or., on the charge of slugging a woman in a hotel in that city last December and robbing her of more than $900, was acquitted today. Elsie O'Neil, in a telegraph office with his bride of two weeks, with whom he is said to have eloped from Suisun, Cal. Bladen had only 17 cents when arrested.

KILLED HER HUSBAND. NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Mrs. Frances O'Shaughnessy, who shot and killed her husband, George, in May last "to save his soul," she said, was acquitted of a murder charge on the ground that she was insane, was released from the Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane on February 14. The fact of her release became public tonight. It was after she had failed to induce her husband to cease paying attention to another woman that she shot him.

the authorities sending police and soldiers to cope with the disturbances, should a strike be declared, to arrange a basis of settlement. Both the coal owners and the miners signified their acceptance of Premier Asquith's invitation to this conference. The Committee of the International Miners' Federation also is meeting today to decide whether the continental coal miners will support their British comrades in the event of a strike.

Conditions through Great Britain, particularly in the manufacturing districts of the North of England are becoming rapidly worse as a result of the threatened coal strike, which if it occurs at the end of the month will throw 800,000 miners, besides workers in other trades, out of employment. At many of the iron works and other big factories the men today received notices from the employers that their services would not be required after February 28 should the coal strike be decided on. Most of the factories have supplies of coal sufficient for the most urgent work on hand.

In London and other cities the price of coal already has reached $8 a ton and the poorer class of people are paying almost double the rate as they purchase only in small quantities.

The coal owners met in conference today to consider the general situation in the trade and also to discuss the invitation of Premier Asquith, who has requested them to meet with some of his colleagues at the Foreign NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

Pasadena. GIRLS PLAN TO CIRCLE GLOBE.

Expect to Visit China and See New Republic.Bond Election Date Set for Early in March.Public Schools to Observe Holiday With Games.

[Office of The Times, No. 28 S. Fair Oaks Ave.]

PASADENA, Feb. 22.—Two young Pasadena women, members of two of the most prominent families in the city, are to leave today for a trip around the world. They are Miss Edith Rowland, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Rowland of No. 55 South Marengo avenue, and Miss Teresa Cloud of No. 606 South Marengo avenue, a grand-daughter of the late Col. Oliver Fisher, one of the pioneer residents of the city. They have returned to make any such arrangements as are usually effected with tourist agencies, but will go where fancy takes them and see what to them is most interesting. One of the first countries they will visit is China. Despite the fact that they will be venturing into lands where many young women would fear to go by themselves, especially where they will tread on the very heels of war, they, like the type of American womanhood they represent, say they have not the least fear. In fact, Miss Cloud was surprised yesterday that the subject should even be mentioned.

"Why it is nothing," said she. "People go around the world every day. There is nothing to be afraid of. Surely our little trip can be of no public interest. We are not going to study any particular place or any particular subject. We are just going to take the course we desire as we proceed. It's just a little jaunt and we are going to roam along as we like." The tentative itinerary—purely tentative, however, for the young ladies say they have made no definite plans as to the route—will be to sail from San Francisco, stopping at Honolulu and then going on to Japan and thence to China. In short, they probably will explore India, and, passing through the Suez Canal, view the pyramids of Egypt, going on to Naples and touring the European continent. They will return to America across the Atlantic ocean. They expect to make many side trips and visit places where the feet of tourists do not often tread. In short, they have no idea of "doing" Europe, etc., but are going to see the world.

Miss Rowland and Miss Cloud will be accompanied part of the way by Miss Marion and Miss Eleanor Craig, who live at the La Solana Hotel, in this city, and who also leave today for South Africa, to visit a brother who is interested in mines there.

ELECTION DATE IS SET.
March 5 was yesterday definitely set as the date for the election at which it is to be determined whether the proposed new city garbage incinerator will be built.

The Council committee to which the matter was referred, announced yesterday that the election will be conducted just as was the garbage incinerator bond election. The polling places will probably be the same. The various sites will be printed on the ballot and the voter instructed to place a mark opposite the one he or she favors.

So far, but three sites have been proposed, although, according to the ruling of the committee, four may be considered. The three that have been suggested are the Raymond-avenue site, which was at first considered by the administration of the city, and which comes within the city limits and in the proposed industrial district; the Arroyo Seco site, which was urged in a petition which Charles A. Baldwin was instrumental in circulating, and the site half a mile west of Azusa, proposed by Walter Raymond, proprietor of the Raymond Hotel. The committee is waiting for the proposal of a fourth site.

WILL OBSERVE HOLIDAY.
The public schools will close today in recognition of Washington's birthday. The State law provides that the schools may be closed for the day or not, as the Board of Education of each district sees fit. The local board voted at the last meeting to close the schools, as it has been the custom to do in past years.

A field meet this afternoon at Carmelita Playground will probably attract most of the children. So that they may be made thoroughly happy, the City Commissioners have instructed the Pasadena Municipal Band to give its concert today at the playground instead of in Central Park. Judging from preparations made, many will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the Associated Charities picnic at Long Beach.

On the other hand, towns of the city will go to the Iowa Society picnic at Eastlake Park in Los Angeles. There will be a large Pasadena delegation there.

MUST STAND BRUNT OF IT.
"What did they want to go and have a smallpox scare for, anyway?" More than one of the Pasadena High School boys has given utterance to words. In fact, the boys have a decided "grouch" and sore arms as well. It is the sore arms that have caused the "grouch." A fellow cannot very well be expected to put shots in his arm and then have a decided "grouch" and sore arms as well. It is the sore arms that have caused the "grouch." A fellow cannot very well be expected to put shots in his arm and then have a decided "grouch" and sore arms as well.

The field teams of the Pasadena and Hollywood High Schools were to have met last Saturday. But the vaccination put a crimp in the proceedings, and now some of the athletes will even be obliged to give up their places in other programmes, among them today's at Carmelita Playground, to less practiced students who did not have the misfortune to have to be vaccinated.

CITY BRIEFS.
The beginning of Lent was observed yesterday with solemn services at the Episcopal and Catholic churches. Miss Anne Kavanagh, of Los Angeles, will give a series of readings, impersonating different nations, at a meeting of the Woman's Circle of Altadena tonight at the home of Mrs. A. T. Welles, corner of Raymond and Mendocino streets. School teachers of Pasadena next week will be addressed by Gustavus T. Kirby, president of the Amateur Athletic Union of America, and treasurer of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, who is on his way to the city from the East. Members of the Pasadena Playground Commission and others met yesterday at the board of the Education to make plans for the playground institute, which it is proposed to hold here. The date has not been decided upon, but it is probably convene soon after April 1. Chas. W. Hetherington of Chicago, will be the principal speaker.

Merchants of Pasadena are making plans for a spring opening. It will be conducted under arrangements of the Pasadena Merchants' Association. The wind which came up last night tore at awnings in the downtown streets and threatened to blow over signs in various parts of the city. According to Weather Observer Berber, the gusts at intervals reached a velocity of sixty miles an hour.

T. Thompson has resigned as business manager of the Pasadena Hospital to become assistant manager of the Hotel Hollywood, that city.

It was reported in the city yesterday that the Hotel Wentworth will be open for business next fall.

Three hundred and ninety-three dollars and fifty cents has been subscribed by Pasadenans to the Central China famine relief fund. Police captain Copping returned from San Francisco yesterday with C. G. Doherty and R. B. Sherman, who are wanted here on charges of passing worthless checks.

According to the 1911 report of the State Controller, Pasadena has the highest per capita valuation of real and personal property of any city in the State.

BRUSH FIRE CORBED.
A brush fire, which started late last night at the corner of East Washington street and Sierra Bonita avenue, near the Nazarene University, was extinguished just in time to prevent a serious blaze, since the strong wind that set in came up immediately it was out. No damage was done.

INSTALL SPRINKLING SYSTEM.

Pomona Park Is Provided With Underground Method Which Will Make Possible Quickest Work.

POMONA, Feb. 21.—The new sprinkling system at City Hall Park has been completed and successfully tried out on the lawn area. It is arranged so that the water sprays which are sunk over the lawn, come partially to the surface, as the water is forced through the valves. There are many small valves located over the ground so that the entire area can be irrigated by one man in less than an hour. This is the first system of the kind to be installed here.

Coronado has a fine new grill.

NEW CLAREMONT BANK.

Charter Granted to Citizens Who Propose to Erect Building for Business—City to Advise.

CLAREMONT, Feb. 20.—A charter has been granted to the Claremont National Bank by the United States government and it has been organized with a capital of $30,000. The directors are J. T. Brooks, president; W. S. Palmer, J. W. Cooper, A. W. Towse, L. N. Smith and M. F. Palmer. As soon as a lot has been purchased and a handsome new building completed, the bank will open its doors for business.

The Claremont Board of Trade is considering the matter of extensively advertising the town. The question of forming a new voting precinct for those outside of the city limits of Claremont but within the Claremont school district is favored and the installation of rural mail delivery in the outskirts of the city is urged.

Prof. George G. Hittcock spoke on modern phases of aviation, at the Cactus Club, this evening. Miss Mary Clark, an expert in domestic science, gave a resume of mayer's plan of giving the city a new park. Spalding, professor of English literature in Pomona College, gave an interesting talk on the Dickens Cemetery. Under the direction of Robert M. May, several instrumental selections were rendered.

Claremont is favored at present with the presence of two Chinese missionaries, who are closely connected with the new regime in China. Dr. Arthur H. Smith, an authority whose books on the Flowery Kingdom are standard, spoke in a scholarly address last night of the future of China and the part the United States, as the oldest and largest republic, will have in molding her future. His faith in the fine qualities of the Chinese and the practical democracy make him optimistic of the future. In Dr. C. R. Hagar of the South China Mission, who is living at present in this city, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the provisional President of the new republic, for some weeks, had his sponsor in the Christian faith. Dr. Hagar believes President Sun to be a fine Christian man of large and far-seeing vision.

EAST HOLLYWOOD LIBRARY.
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Warren presented to the library board a deed to a site embracing four-tenths of an acre at the junction of Hollywood, Sunset and Maubert boulevards, Tuesday.

The library board has accepted the deed to the site. This site is about one-half a mile north of the site selected for the State Normal School. It is the geographical center of its boundaries a population of 10,000. A meeting has been called at the Los Feliz school for tomorrow evening to take steps to secure a Carnegie branch library for East Hollywood.

Long Beach. CITIZENS ROAST ADMINISTRATION

Angry Because Levy Was Made on Invalid Bonds.Water Department Situation Causes Conflict.Auto Owners to Ask Aid to Prevent Accidents.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 21.—Considerable unfavorable comment has been heard on the street today about business methods of the city administration on the discovery that the property owners of the city for two years paid taxes on the $125,000 bond issue for the Pine-avenue and Devil's Gate piers, issued in 1909, and which were last year held to be invalid by the Superior Court.

Following the voting of the bonds and awaiting bids, taxes became due and the Council assessed for the fiscal year of 1910-11 a fraction over 1-3 cents on each $100 of valuation to meet the interest on the bonds. The following year, after bond houses had refused the issue on the ground that they were not legal, the Council again assessed a 2-1/2-cent tax, although it was generally understood by the city administration that the bonds were not legal. That money is the treasury today—several thousand dollars—but can be used for no other purpose. City Attorney Long says that the money will have to be turned to the taxpayers, for to call an election to have it diverted to some other public improvement would be rather a costly procedure.

The situation in the water department is said today not to have been improved by the star chamber conference of the City Council and the commission. The friction existing between the former employees of the private plants was talked over and it is said that, although the Council took no recorded stand on the question, they sided with the commission and against the Mayor and decided that the Water Commission was in its rights in its selection of a general foreman, and approval of his acts, except that Shrode, the deposed foreman, being a contractor, was not by ordinance, will be permitted to remain the balance of the month.

ACKNOWLEDGES DEFEAT.
The Mayor acknowledged his defeat today by saying that the matter was in the hands of the commission and it could do as it pleased in the conduct of the water department.

The Chamber of Commerce met to work in special session and discussed a campaign for funds to conduct the work of the chamber during the coming year. About $15,000 will be needed and it was felt that a personal canvass would have more results than any appeal through letters and circulars. The Finance Committee will within the next few days, decide upon the method of making the canvass. Long Beach automobile owners are preparing to go before the Superior Court and ask that the Pacific Electric be compelled to give some sort of protection at the Florence-avenue crossing on the main line, where an accident occurred yesterday, and where there have been four smash-ups in the last two weeks. There is a house on each side of the road on the west and a house and orchard on the east side, making it impossible for drivers to see the approach of cars. In addition the rails are said to be six inches above grade, causing machines to bump.

The girls of the High School senior class have decided to follow the action of the senior girls last year, and wear as graduation gowns simple, but pretty and dainty, white dresses, which will cost complete $2.50 each. A design shown today upon a doll was adopted. Many of the girls will make their own dresses at home or in the domestic science department.

BIDS ARE OPENED.

Bids for the completion of the west beach boulevard and bulkhead, which was abandoned by the city, were opened today, but no award was made. Four bids were received ranging from $106,000 to $173,000, the latter bid being by Charles Stansbury, the bidder, who completed about $20,000 worth of work before giving up his job.

The Republican City Executive Committee yesterday selected the committeemen for the thirty-one precincts of the city, but agreed to withhold the names until they had been acted on by the County Central Committee.

Superintendent Graham received word today from the County Superintendent and District Attorney that the resolution adopted calling for a school bond election for $100,000 was all right legally, and the new will proceed. Vernon Flowers, the boy run over by an auto a week ago, is said to be in a serious condition. His broken leg seems to be knitting nicely, but the patient is weakened by hemorrhages from the injured lung.

Several dogs bitten by a collie, since found to have been afflicted with rabies, were rounded up today by the police and sent to the pound. Elton E. Lyons, aged 49, died this morning at his home on Alamitos avenue. Deceased was a native of Michigan and came here a year ago from Wyoming. He leaves a widow.

AFFAIRS IN POMONA.

Ganesha Club Members Attend a Washington's Birthday Party.

POMONA, Feb. 21.—A Washington's Birthday party was given at the Armory this evening by the members of the Ganesha Club. The decorating of the rooms was effectively done in the national colors and favors were suggestive of the season. Refreshments were served during the evening. The patronesses were Meses A. C. Abbott, E. Hinman, F. E. Graham, H. Tinsley, C. L. Smith, H. Smith, F. L. Thomas and George Belcher.

Representatives of the Standard Oil Company have leased several hundred acres of land west of Ganesha Park from John T. Lawrence and the Pomona Land and Water Company, and are preparing to prospect for oil. A derrick has been erected and wells boring apparatus set up.

The funeral of the late Lewis Brown, an electric lineman for the Southern California Edison Company and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown of this city, who died in Los Angeles as a result of electric wire burns, was held this afternoon from Todd's chapel on North Garey avenue. The local Edison employees attended the services.

The senior class of the local High School netted $350 from the two performances of the play, "Aunt Ann's," given at the Fraternity Aid Theater on Friday and Saturday nights.

District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler D. Frank Hunt of Santa Barbara paid an official visit to the local lodge of Elks this evening.

The funeral of Albert T. Curtis, father of Mrs. S. P. Rodge, who died here, on Monday at the age of 91 years, was held from Todd's chapel at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. L. D. Van Arman officiating.

The Board of Education, at a meeting last evening, elected Miss Evelyn Calf head of the domestic science department of the local High School, and Miss Blanche Tilton was elected to succeed Mrs. Xenia Steinberg, who has taken a position in the Los Angeles schools.

The Central Parent-Teachers' Association met this afternoon in the Central kindergarten. The programme was furnished by the departmental teachers and there were patriotic songs by children from the schools.

AZUSA.

AZUSA, Feb. 21.—The Contract Water Company has purchased from H. R. Bierbower ten lots on Angelina avenue just north of Eleventh street, for the purpose of sinking a well. It is the intention to go as deep as is necessary in order to obtain a good flow of water, and connect by means of a steel pressure line with the Covina Irrigating Company ditch. The contract for drilling the well has been let to Will Sheppard of Glendora.

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees last evening the contract for a bridge on Pasadena avenue, between First and Second streets, to cost $45, was let to Wardall and Wagner of Monrovia.

Some rooms at Coronado now.

VAIN HUNT FOR 8 YEARS.

Mrs. Henson Hunted for Something to Help Her During Eight Years, But Found Nothing Until She Began to Take Cardui.

PURCELL, Okla.—Mrs. May Henson, of this place, says: "For nearly 8 years, I suffered from womanly troubles, and could not find anything that did me any good."

"I had such pains, I could not do my work, and I could hardly even lie down."

"I tried different doctors, but got worse all the time. I was told by several to take Cardui, and I decided to give it a trial."

The very first bottle helped me, and by the time I had taken five bottles, I was well and could do my own work."

"I think every suffering woman should take Cardui. Anyone who doubts that it will cure, should try it, as I did, and they will never doubt it again."

As a remedy for women's ills, Cardui has no equal. For more than 50 years—commencing before most of the readers of this paper were born—Cardui has been helping sick women back to health and strength.

If you are weak, tired, worn-out, or suffer from any of the pains peculiar to "womanly troubles," or from irregularities, urge you to give Cardui a fair trial. Begin today. Your druggist sells it.

Note—The Cardui Home Treatment for Women, consists of Cardui (21) Throat's Black-Draught (25c) or Yellow (50c) for the liver and Cardui Antispasmodic (50c). These remedies may be taken singly, by themselves, or if desired, in three together, as a complete treatment for women's ills. Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for special instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

S.S.S. REMOVES THE CAUSE OF CATARRH. No remedy that does not entirely remove the cause of Catarrh from the blood will ever make a permanent cure of the trouble. Just as long as the circulation remains contaminated with the impurities and catarrhal matters which produce the trouble, the mucous membranes or inner linings of the body will be kept in a state of irritation and disease. Sprays, lotions and other local applications will sometimes temporarily relieve the tight, full feeling in the head, buzzing noises in the ears, uncomfortable, stuffy feeling of the nostrils, and help to loosen the mucus in the throat; but Catarrh is a constitutional blood disorder and until it has been entirely driven from the system there can be no permanent cure. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by removing the cause from the blood. It attacks the disease at its head and by thoroughly purifying and cleansing the circulation, and ridding it of every particle of impurity, and at the same time enriching the blood, allows the inflamed and irritated membranes to heal, improves the general health, and stops every disagreeable symptom. S. S. S. reaches down to the very bottom and leaves no trace of the disease in the system. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

One Hundred Thousand Dollars. DE LONGPRE HOME SOLD TO WOMAN FLOWER LOVER. Famous Hollywood Mansion of Great Floral Painter and Its Exquisite Surroundings Now the Property of Wealthy Visitor from East—New Owner Will Live There—Dead Artist's Family Plan Trip Abroad.

THE famous Hollywood home of Paul de Longpre has passed from the hands of his family to the ownership of Mrs. Jesse Williamson Carr of New York State. The sale was consummated by C. H. Lippincott & Co., representing the family. The amount paid is in the neighborhood of $100,000. None of the parties in the deal feel at liberty to state the exact price at the present time. "The day I heard that Mr. De Longpre had died, I thought of how wonderful it would be to own his beautiful home, with its varied flower gardens, its delightful associations, and its unique setting," said Mrs. Carr, who is residing at the Alexandria at the present time. "I had visited the gardens, met the famous artist and came to know him well during my various visits to Southern California during a period of seven years. "Little did I think that the home would ever be placed on sale, and when I arrived here several weeks ago I went out to look it over. Since the death of my husband, many years ago, I have lacked a real home, and the desire to have one place in the world that would be exclusively mine has been always with me. All my desires and ideals of a home were fulfilled when I found that the home was awaiting a purchaser, because of the inability of Mrs. Josephine de Longpre and her daughters, Blanche and Pauline, to occupy so large a place in comfort. "Because of their long associations with the place and the memories that will always be theirs, the home will be theirs as much as mine at all times to occupy and enjoy should they desire. They will keep the pretty bungalow which occupies the adjoining property and will leave shortly, from what they told me, for Europe. There they will go to France, where the artist had many relatives and where his first works drew attention to his merit. In Paris they may exhibit some of his flower paintings, in order that his memory remain fresh in the land of his birth. "Mrs. Carr plans to beautify the grounds only by taking most elaborate care of the gardens. She has already placed men on the grounds, who are replanting much of the present ground with the same flowers exactly as those which were placed by De Longpre himself. "My aim will be to keep things just as they are, only adding to the worn-out hedges and beds of flowers to bring them again to full perfection," said Mrs. Carr. "She is the widow of a general merchant of Madison, N. Y., near which place she still maintains a large country place in the Adirondacks. Her home in New York city while she is there is in the Savoy Hotel. She has business interests scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast, having taken to this as a means of erasing the sorrows attendant to her husband's demise.

"It was only in a small way, looking after my own properties that I became interested in business," she said. "It became more and more a fascination, and my interests extended from New York to Chicago, and seven years ago when I came here I at once decided that it was one of the best places in the United States to invest, and I acquired a few holdings which have been increasing gradually, the present purchase being the largest as far as a single money investment is concerned that I have made here."

Young Couple Come to Los Angeles, Secure License and Are Married Secretly. The guests who were to have been witnesses of the marriage of W. H. Dalldorf and Una Falkenstein in San Bernardino will not see the affair, for the two slipped away from San Bernardino yesterday morning and procured a marriage license at the Court house here. The groom is 23 years old and a partner with his father in the real estate business at San Bernardino. The bride, aged 18 years, is the daughter of George Falkenstein, and the wedding was to have been an elaborate affair at her father's house. "Show us the way to Judge Summerfield's court," they said as soon as the license was in their possession. "We want to be married in a hurry." Five minutes later they were thanking the judge for the expedition with which he had performed the ceremony and were starting back to apprise their San Bernardino friends of the march they had taken. Justice Summerfield married eight couples yesterday, which is a record even for him.

AT RISK OF HIS LIFE. Patrolman Stops Runaway Horse, Is Rendered Unconscious by Blow, and Falls Over Prostrate Animal. Patrolman North proved himself a hero late yesterday afternoon when he risked his own life in stopping a runaway horse that was endangering the lives of a number of men, women and children near the corner of Alameda street and Ferguson alley. North was picked up unconscious and for a few minutes it was feared he had been killed. When the patrolman opened his eyes, and asked where he was and inquired if any person had been injured, he was cheered by the crowd that had collected. The horse broke from its hitching post, and started down Alameda street on a gallop, with the delivery wagon rattling at its heels. The shouts of pedestrians attracted the attention of North, who rushed out into the street. Just as he did so the horse swerved to one side and started for the sidewalk. There were scores of men, women and children, on the sidewalk. North's impulse was to rush in, stop the horse and save the pedestrians, and he did it. The animal was half way across the sidewalk before North was able to bring him to his knees. Just at that moment North's head struck the horse's nose and the policeman fell unconscious over the horse's head. That blinded the horse and he dropped to the sidewalk, when a dozen men leaped upon him, holding him firmly until North's prostrate form could be raised. He was placed on the sidewalk and restoratives were given him. At the Receiving Hospital it was found the patrolman was suffering from a laceration on the forehead and a contusion of the right shoulder, where a shaft of the wagon struck him.

TURNING THE TABLES. THIS BOOT'S ON THE OTHER LEG. STARTING ACCUSATIONS HALT INSANITY HEARING. Attorney for Man Arrested for an Assault Upon His Wife Declares in Court that a Conspiracy Was on Foot to Get Rid of His Client for the Property. Accusations that brought to a sudden halt the insanity hearing of Nicholas Koss on an insanity charge before Judge Hutton yesterday morning were made by the defendant's attorney, E. J. Fleming. Attorney Fleming declared that his client was the victim of a conspiracy, and that certain specified persons desired his death so that they could get his property, here and in the East, which is valued at more than $150,000. The attorney declares that for months these persons have kept the aged man under the influence of intoxicants. Fleming says that he has in his possession a letter written by one of them in which the approach of Koss's end was discussed. Believing that the circumstances warranted a thorough investigation, Judge Hutton postponed the hearing until next Tuesday, when more than a score of witnesses will be subpoenaed. In a statement yesterday afternoon Attorney Fleming mentioned the names of Mrs. May Paton Koss, the aged man's young bride, Dr. R. J. French, who was his secretary as well as his family physician, and a woman whom he knew by the name of "Clara," a chum of Mrs. Koss. Dr. French admitted on the stand yesterday that Attorney Fleming had accused him of conspiring against Koss's life. The attorney declared that Koss had had two wills drawn within the last fifteen days, the second document allowing Mrs. Koss a more liberal division of the estate. Attorney John Stick in representing Mrs. Koss, she denied the allegations of the defendant's attorney, but said that Koss had had a new will drawn about a week ago. He declared that he knew nothing of another will having been drawn shortly before or since that time. Mr. and Mrs. Koss were married about three months ago after a courtship which had its origin late fall when Koss was a patient at the Clara Barton Hospital. His bride is 27 years old while he is 58 years of age. Koss was arrested last Friday after an alleged attempt to shoot his wife in their home, No. 453 West Ninth street, for no apparent reason. He was apparently drunk-crazed at the time and was sent to the County Hospital. The insanity charge was then lodged against him.

STANTON'S DAY AT HOME. Newest Orange County City Will Receive Visitors and Show Them Its Wonders by Automobile. The citizens of Stanton announce that they will be at home to the general public today. Everyone is invited to visit the city and upon arrival will be given an automobile ride through some of the farming country and orange groves in the vicinity of Stanton. Stanton, the most recently incorporated community in Orange county, was organized as a city of the sixth class May 23 last. Since its incorporation the citizens have been joining in a general boom to establish a business center at the junction of the Pacific Electric and Southern Pacific tracks in the city limits. It is for the purpose of showing the general public what they have accomplished, and of explaining what the incorporation of the city at that point means to them and to western Orange county in general, that this invitation is extended.

WAT'S WAT IS WAT. Attorney Learns What Wat Is in Suit Over Storage Battery—Witness's Answers Disconcert Him. "What is the term for the unit of discharge from storage battery?" demanded an attorney for J. Rogers in Justice Summerfield's court yesterday of an electrical expert named L. Blymer. "Wat," replied Blymer. The attorney repeated the question and said: "Now tell us what it is." "Wat," replied the witness, imperceptibly. "What? Yes, what? What? Do you hear?" repeated the lawyer. "Wat—that's what I mean," said Blymer, and he spelled the word. The suit was over a storage battery installed by an electrical company in Rogers's house. The court took it under advisement. Paul de Longpre's Home and Its Buyer. The latter, Mrs. Jesse Williamson Carr, a wealthy visitor and woman of affairs from New York State, she bought the famous flower painter's beautiful Hollywood mansion and the wonderful floral bowers surrounding it for a price of approximately $100,000. This will be her permanent home. TODAY'S AUTOMOBILE TOUR ON VAN NUYS BOULEVARD. Today is the first anniversary of the birth of the booming new town of Van Nuys in the San Fernando Valley. To celebrate the day a free barbecue will be served there at noon and after in Romero's best style. Many automobilists will go up to take a spin on the magnificent fifteen-mile boulevard, and to see what has been accomplished in one short year. Nothing like it was ever known.

INTEREST NOW IN PIPE LINES.

Applications for Franchises
Come in Numbers.

Expects the Latest Entry in Local Field.

Oil News of Interest from Fields of State.

One of the most significant features of the California oil industry at the present time is the fact that the war in the game are awakening the absolute necessity of more pipe lines for transportation. The transportation of crude oil in tank cars, with its possibility of a back haul, is now regarded as an obsolete method of moving the market.

Such interest was aroused all over the state among oil producers, when J. E. Fitzpatrick, representing the Esperanza Consolidated Oil Company, filed an application with the State and the Supervisors the other day for a franchise to build a double all pipe line through the city and portions of the county. There are also talks of pipe line activity in other directions. Just a few weeks ago the Pacific Pipe Line Company was incorporated with a capitalization of $11,000,000, and while the interest appeared to be dormant and the plans of the company have not yet been given publicity, the company was no doubt organized for a purpose. Also there are rumors that from no less a source than the City of San Francisco, the Stanford Oil Company may decide to add to its present great equipment an oil line from the San Joaquin Valley to the new refinery at El Segundo.
Pipe line activity is not halting at the transportation of oil either, for the Midway Gas Company has asked for a franchise that will give it authority to build pipe lines for the transportation of natural gas from the wells of the Honolulu Consolidated Oil Company in the Buena Vista field, near the Midway field, to the city of Los Angeles, where the product can be turned over to the Honolulu Gas Company.

HONOR MEMORY OF WASHINGTON.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Programme of Wide Variety of Interest Arranged for Many Places Today—Pleasures and Functions of All Sorts in and Out of Town—Celebration at Van Nuys.

All Los Angeles will today pay homage to the memory of George Washington. The anniversary being a legal holiday, the city, county and Federal offices and banks will be closed and the postoffice and substations will be open only part of the day. Many business houses will close in honor of the country's father.

One of the notable events today will be the big celebration and barbecue at Van Nuys. Particular significance is attached to this part of the day's doings as Van Nuys is just one year old.
What was a barley field not long ago is now a budding metropolis with splendid brick business blocks, paved and graded thoroughfares and beautiful homes, and its residents feel that they have a double reason for celebrating.

The barbecue will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 o'clock in the afternoon. A special excursion fare of 50 cents for the round trip has been arranged and extra car service will be provided. Cars will leave the Pacific Electric station every few minutes from early morning until late in the afternoon.

The town Society's picnic, always a big affair, is expected to be bigger than ever. More than 50,000 former Iowans and their friends are planning to gather at Eastlake Park. One of the features of the picnic will be a reunion of every Iowan in Southern California born before December 28, 1846, Iowa's admission day.

Former residents of Montana will gather at Spaymore Grove, where they will enjoy a picnic and a day's outing. The Pana (Ill.) Society will also picnic there. There will be a reunion of former residents of Fulton county, Illinois, in Choral Hall, in the Auditorium at noon. The delegates to the Pacific Coast Printers' Coast Congress, accompanied by the members of their families and friends, will go on an excursion to Mt. Lowe.

In the evening the B'nai B'rith grand ball will be held at Goldbergs' and the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce will be held at the Alexander. The Metropolitan Club will observe Washington's Birthday with a musical programme and the Northwestern University Glee Club will give a concert in the Gamut Club Auditorium.

Washington's Birthday was celebrated in all the schools yesterday afternoon with appropriate exercises.
The postoffice and all stations and branches will be open from the usual hour until noon. The general delivery and stamp windows at the main office will be open until 5 p.m. All business carriers will make two morning deliveries and one collection. Collectors will observe holiday schedules.
Rural carriers will make no deliveries.
Holiday dispatches of mail will be made to and from all stations and branches.

County Clerk Addresses Letter to Voters in Reply to Prohibitionists' Protests of Registration.

Because of the numerous complaints which have been made to him asserting that deputy registration clerks were refusing to recognize the Prohibition party, or to allow voters to register as members of that party, County Clerk Leland Tuesday addressed the following signed letter to voters of Los Angeles county:

"Owing to the fact that there seems to be a misunderstanding in regard to the registration law, and complaints are being made that registration deputies from my office are refusing to register Prohibition voters as such, and are also advising against it, I wish to make the following statement to the public:

"All voters are privileged to register and to state any party they may wish. If they do not wish to state their party affiliation they have that option. Those registering for a party which may not appear on the primary ballot, and those not stating their party affiliation, cannot vote at the primary election; this will not, however, preclude them from voting at the general election.

"I wish to further state that no deputies from my office have received instructions not to register Prohibitionists as such, and if they do so, are acting upon their own responsibility and are violating the law.

Whenever such violations are brought to my notice any deputy so doing will be discharged from service.

"Any person, who, through a misunderstanding, may have registered for a party other than the one they wish, may change their registration by calling at my office in the County Courthouse, Los Angeles."

CURED IN FIVE DAYS
Hernia, Piles, Fistula and Varicose Veins

Many Cases Cured Permanently in FIVE DAYS. Most Time-Saving,
Most Natural, Most Safe.
Invitation from Occupation, Family or Home. A Radical and Permanent Cure. I Will Give $500 to Any Charity as a Guarantee That Every Statement in This Announcement is True.

I cure rapidly, painlessly and at small expense. Cured patients are my testimonials; however, I do not make patients' names merchandise by publishing them. I will give conclusive evidence of my merit, which is obtained and maintained by ability. I invite you to consult me. I will explain my treatment for Hernia, Piles, Fistula, Varicose Veins, Pelvic, Nervous, Blood, Kidney, Bladder and Rectal Diseases. I will give you free a physical examination; if necessary a microscopic and chemical analysis of secretions to determine existing pathological and bacteriological conditions.
Every person should take advantage of this opportunity to learn their true condition. Certainty of cure is what you want.

VARICOSE VEINS.

In the cure of Varicose Veins, Rupture and Associated Diseases of the Pelvic Region, I am successful in bringing to bear the curative power of Nature's forces in such a manner as to supply the old time, wide-open surgical operation. Once I it required several weeks to cure these conditions and the method which I use will use as much as to endanger the life of the patient and require a long period of convalescence. Now an absolute cure can be accomplished in a few days and with perfect safety.

TRUSSER SELDOM CURE RUPTURE.
Disregard for existing Hernias has cost many lives. The smallest hernias are the most dangerous. Life becomes a burden increased liability to strangulation. I am aware that a great deal of fraud has been practiced on the public in connection with the alleged cure of rupture, and when I say positively that I cure rupture, I mean I cure it. I do not any one to accept my statement without investigation of my professional work. My claim to your confidence is based on solute facts, accomplished results. A personal consultation. I will make a free examination and can explain every detail of your Hernia and demonstrate to you the curative value of the method I have discovered. I invite the careful consideration of any person who sincerely desires to be cured. I cure Rupture, in selected cases, with perfect safety, and entail no suffering, and do not detain you from occupation under Written Guarantee. Many cases cured to stay cured by a few treatments.

PILES, FISTULA, RECTAL DISEASES.

These diseases are very common and frequently found in persons of middle or advanced age; are exceedingly annoying, often very painful and sometimes very dangerous, and frequently unfit one for pleasure or occupation. My treatment and success are the result of years of experience; my treatment is kindly applied. I cure Piles without cutting. Some cases are cured by one or more treatments. If I do not cure your Piles, Fistula and other Rectal Diseases, my treatment does not cost you anything. I entireness in treatment comes from treating many cases, so I guarantee a cure of Piles, Fistula, Pilonid, Ulcers and curable Rectal Diseases.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES.

With these diseases you may have more complications than are presented by any other diseased organ. By my careful examination of the bladder I determine accurately the diseases and by my microscopical examination and analysis I make sure of the condition of the kidneys, thus laying foundations for scientific treatment.

IN GOOD FAITH.

Nothing is worse, sometimes, than for a man to be taken at his word. The Republicans of a Congressional district in Virginia passed resolutions exhorting Roosevelt for his "honorable and persistent refusal to accept a third term."

HERALDS OF SPRING.

The roses have had a long, long rest this year, due to the lateness of the rains, but a few days hence will find them bursting into a rage of bloom. They promise exceptional vigor and beauty as a result of their protracted vacation.

EXCUSABLE.

In a way, we can understand the Democrats of Missouri in their ambition to endorse a favorite son. They probably accept the position that it is more exciting to watch a ship fighting against the winds than to see a log floating with the current.

HER FROWNS.

A college girl in the State of Washington smashed a stiff right to the jaw of a thug and then escaped. The surprise is not in the young woman's knockout punch, but in her ability to get the drop on a highwayman actively engaged in his occupation.

KENTUCKY SYMPATHY.

The Kentucky Legislature seems to have resolved itself into an incubator of forlorn hopes. It devoted one day last week to Woodrow Wilson and spent Tuesday afternoon listening to Gov. Harmon of Ohio. It should receive Champ Clark and then adjourn.

HARMLESS.

Gradually the twentieth century conscience is becoming sufficiently elastic to admit that many things may amuse without contributing to moral delinquency; but the fact that the installation of billiard and pool tables at Walla Walla University is still considered telegraphic news suggests a residue which might be eliminated without injury to American character.

INCLUSIVE.

A bill has been introduced in Congress granting Luther Burbank permission to grow spineless cactus on unappropriated arid lands of California and Arizona. If a bill could be passed restraining the arid areas from growing any other kind of cactus than the spineless variety the cattle barons of these sections would be much obliged! Maybe the Lord and Luther Burbank can arrange this between them without the aid of Congress.

A SILLY QUARREL.

Society at Washington, D. C., has had a week of strife over some party given by a military attaché. Society, as a by-product of position and endeavor, suggests pleasing and sometimes admirable intercourse, but society as an end rather than a means of human function is a futile proposition—and its quarrels over being invited where it did not care to go, or not invited where not wanted, are too empty for consideration.

DESERVING.

The Young Woman's Christian Association should be successful in its campaign to raise $75,000 for its ever-expanding Los Angeles work. It boasts the largest membership of any branch in the world and has in hand a quality of endeavor not attempted by any other local institution. This city has been most generous in its response to past appeals by the Young Men's Christian Association, and the conservation of its young women is certainly of equal importance.

SNOW AND ALFALFA.

Street cars in Saint Louis blocked by snow. Railroad cuts filled with snow and trains stalled in Colorado, Kansas and Oklahoma. Ice jams in the streams and bridges carried away. The Missouri River frozen to a depth of from one to three feet all the way from Kansas City to Fort Benton. Chicago lingering in the lap of zero. Water families threatening the interior cities of New York State, because of ice freezing and bursting of water mains. Fuel and food advancing in price in Atlantic Coast cities. Winter throttling commerce with its icy hands and bringing discomfort to the rich and suffering to the poor all the way from Denver to Boston. And here? Ah, here the alfalfa is mantling the earth with its verdure. The trees are blossoming and giving promise of affluent fruitage. The birds are mating. The bees are nesting in the hearts of the red roses and the white lilies, and the country presents to the traveler a panorama of "Sweet fields arrayed in living green And rivers of delight."

LOVE.

O Love—that love who comes so stealthily. And takes us up, and twists us as it will—What fevered hours of agony you bring! How oft we wake, and cry: "God set me free Of love—to never love again!" And still We fall and clutch you by the knees, and cling. And press our lips. And so, once more are glad! And if you go, or if you never come, Through what a grieving wilderness of pain We travel on. In prisons stripped of light We blindly grope, and wander without home. The friendless winds that sweep across the plain—The beggars meeting us at silent night—Than we, are not more desolate and sad! —[John Galsworthy, in Scribner's Magazine.]

SUGAR ON FREE LIST? THEN WHAT?

The Democrats in the House of Representatives—outside of the Representatives from the Gulf States—and the beet-root sugar Northwestern States, are planning to place sugar on the free list. The obstacle which they encounter is the fact that to admit sugar free of duty will entail a loss of $53,000,000 per annum to the revenue. It is proposed to make this up partly by inflicting a higher duty on luxuries and partly by levying an internal revenue tax on refined sugar. It is doubtful whether the encouragement which might be afforded by this plan to the use of unrefined sugar by consumers would amount to much. Brown sugar and black molasses have for many years been banished from the menu of even the humblest households. The American workman will not, in order to save 10 cents a week, go back to the diet of his grandfather any more than he will use tallow candles for light or wear home-made woolen mittens for gloves.

In levying a higher duty on luxuries so as to make up the sugar deficit the committee are at a loss to determine what are luxuries. One member feebly suggests "silk stockings." It is clear that he is a mere man, and a bachelor man at that. Does he know what percentage of our new voters wear silk stockings, and what percentage wear cotton stockings? And, if he knows it, how does he know it? Is he speaking from personal inspection, or from unauthenticated public rumor?

The duty on diamonds might be doubled, but experience has demonstrated that such an increase would be to double the business of diamond smuggling. The place of places on which to locate increased duties on luxuries is on beer, wines, brandies and cordials. Beranger said, "Let me make the songs of a people and I care not who makes their laws." Champ Clark might say "let me tax the drinks of a people and you may let in silk stockings, and embroidered corsets, and Paris costumes, and bird-of-paradise Easter bonnets, as well as sugar, free of duty."

Let the Democratic tariff-for-revenue-only statesmen in Congress beware how they class as luxuries to be subjected to increased taxation such necessary necessities of life as sixteen-button kid gloves and fine linen. The committee may depend upon the consent or even upon the help of The Times to class oranges, and lemons, and raisins, and wines as luxuries on which the duty ought to be raised. But when it comes to increasing the duty on silk stockings and articles of female apparel that are worn higher up than the stockings The Times outstretches its potent arm. It throws around our lovely suffragettes the awful circle of its power and says to Champ Clark—"Step but one foot within those sacred bounds And on thy head, yes, though it were A Democratic Presidential nomination, We hurl our sisters' curse."

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY.

While progressive insurgency continues to make maxims, true Republicanism, under the guidance of President Taft, continues to make or attempt to make wise and needed laws. In his message, sent on Wednesday last to Congress, the President recommends the enactment of an employers' liability law that is just to labor, just to employers of labor, and which, in its operations, will relieve both from harassing, tedious and uncertain litigation. The Supreme Court, in its decision on a case arising under the present law, has decided that under the provisions of the commerce clause in the interstate and foreign commerce act, it was within the power of Congress to pass the employers' liability law. The President says "that the police power of the government, exercised in the regulation of interstate commerce, is quite sufficient to justify the imposition upon the interstate railroad companies of liability for the injuries to its employees on an insurance basis." The President further says:

"The administration of justice today is clogged in every court by the great number of suits for damages for personal injury. The settlement of such cases by this system will serve to reduce the burden of our courts one-half by taking the cases out of court and disposing of them by this short cut."

In the law proposed by the President the ancient and unjust common-law doctrine of contributory negligence and fellow-servant rule is eliminated. An injured employee is only denied compensation in cases where injuries were willfully inflicted, or where intoxication of the party injured was their immediate cause. (We think the President might also have justly included among the exceptions all cases of injuries received in strikes, riots or other lawless proceedings on the part of railway employees.) In all other cases besides those enumerated the minimum of compensation is an equivalent to one-half of the wages which the party injured might have obtained during the period of his disability. It is estimated upon the basis of accurate statistical information that the effect of the proposed law will be to increase by 25 per cent. the annual sum now paid by railroad companies on judgments in favor of injured employees and to correspondingly increase the sum received by the injured men. Really the difference is greater because under the present system the sum paid by the companies to lawyers to defend the damage suits is probably quite 25 per cent. of the sums recovered, while the compensation received by the workmen is probably diminished more than 25 per cent. by reason of the share taken from him by his lawyers.

The text of the proposed law appears in full in The Times of Wednesday and need not be repeated here. The right of trial by jury is preserved, provided it is claimed by the employee within a certain specified time.

While the proposed law can only be made applicable to injuries received by employees of interstate railroads, it is altogether probable that many States will enact similar laws for all local employers and employees of labor. That would not only relieve the congestion in our courts caused by damage cases, but it will put out of business the discreditable members of the bar who hang around the hospitals and the scene of accidents, ready to espouse the cause of the injured for half of the sum that may be obtained by suit or settlement. In such cases it is not uncommon for the lawyer to accept a fee or rather a bribe from the defendant to obtain a settlement, in addition to the half of what is paid which he extorts from his ignorant and confiding client. The Times recently had its attention called to a case in which the sufferer by an auto accident received a few hours afterwards at his home five letters from as many "damage lawyers" in which each urged his own employment and warned the sufferer to say nothing to anybody else, and above all not to allow any other "damage lawyer" to obtain access to him.

GOMERS MUST GO.

Gomers must go because he no longer has the support of union labor as a whole. For instance, when the resolutions committee began to report the other day to the United Mine Workers of America convention 155 resolutions were in its hands and a majority of them favored withdrawal from the American Federation of Labor, otherwise known as Gomers & Co.

Gomers must go because, in the thirty years of his misrule as union-labor's chief leader, he has taken $2,622,000 (or more) out of the wages of union labor, without giving it a single thing really worth having in return.

Gomers must go because he has become a bone of contention in the ranks of union labor and around him now rages a fight, the continuance of which will put union labor "out of business" and out of usefulness, with probable destruction of its entire fabric.

Gomers must go because, under his leadership and with his sanction, the American Federation of Labor (Gomers & Co.) during all its thirty years of existence has been engaged in carrying on boycotts, notwithstanding that all the courts have declared against boycotts. Gomers seeks and has always sought to set himself above the courts; in other words, he seeks to be a law unto himself.

Gomers must go because he is the self-confessed friend of the self-confessed murderous dynamite—the two McNamaras. Gomers seeks to make union labor (or its leaders) a privileged class within the law. In other words, he wants dynamiting, boycotting and rabid union-labor violence to go unwhipped of justice. He tried that in Los Angeles, with the help of Darrow, Harriman and Scott, and failed ignominiously.

Gomers must go because, when he said, on hearing of the McNamaras' confessions, "My credulity has been grossly imposed upon," he lied. John Kirby, Jr., president of the National Association of Manufacturers, hits the nail on the head in saying in American Industries:

"Now, for one moment believes that a man of Sam Gomers' cunning, with McNamara's confession made public, with the same and greater opportunity than other people had to know the facts, and with full knowledge of the 100 or more cases of dynamited non-union bridges and other structures, with the repeated cases of murder and slaying of non-union men going on constantly, and everywhere in labor disputes, could be so simple-minded and so gullible as to feel as positively as he has pretended to have felt, that those men were the innocent victims of a conspiracy to injure organized labor. Really, is not the proposition so absolutely ridiculous as to make the man look like a fool?"

Anyway, if Gomers is such a gullible fool as he makes himself out to be, he is no longer a fit man to lead even a corporal's guard of union labor, let alone the army of union labor as a whole.

Gomers must go because never once, not even for the sake of union labor, which he so gloriously and incompetently misleads, has he lifted hand or finger to aid justice in discouraging and punishing the gang of dynamiters which for five years he has knowingly kept in good standing in the ranks of his affiliation. On the contrary, when the McNamaras confessed, he tried to "save his face," as the Chinese say, by vociferously shouting, "I am astounded." What he doubtless meant was that he was "astounded" at their confession—not at their guilt. That they were guilty, his selected attorney, Clarence Darrow, has admitted he knew from the start. As he knew it, doubtless Gomers also knew it; yet, Sam immediately proceeded to collect and did collect $225,000 for the benefit of—whom?—mainly Darrow, Harriman and Joseph Scott.

Gomers must go because (his own report) in 1910 his parasitic organization had the handling of $360,000 of union labor's wages money and only returned $6484 (less than 2 per cent.) to union labor for "strike benefits." Question (asked many times by The Times, but never answered)—"Where did the remaining $354,000 go?"

Gomers must go because, until he goes, by reason of recent revelations, decent union labor, as well as bad union labor, must remain under the ban of public condemnation, with public sympathy alienated and its usefulness utterly destroyed.

WALT MASON.

The Poet Philosopher.

No odds how well you do your task, you'll hear the knocks of those who bask in mediocrity. No man ever soared the heights of fame but fellows jealous of his fame with sneers and gibes were free. When, with his mighty, Jovellike brush, Mike Angelo about the crush, in noble triumph rose, he doubtless heard the knocks and whines of cheap john skates who painted signs and barns and things like those. The rabble couldn't rattle Mike; he turned out works of art the like of which men had not known; he headed not the carping jays, but went on painting, fifty ways, and sculpting things in stone. Do you the same, if you would win; resist to knocking with a grin, or with a seamy jest; you'll make mistakes—all men do—that but keep a cool head in your hat, and always do your best. I used to weep and wail the floor when some cold-blooded critic swore that all my work was punk; but now I let the critics slide; my conscience tells me I have tried to turn out decent junk.

Why They Fussed.

[Saturday Evening Post:] Occasionally something "gets by" the copy editors of the Associated Press. Not long ago a story came into the Atlanta office, was edited and put on the wire for the southern division, and got as far as Louisville before the urgent "Kill it!" caught up.

The story concerned a fight between two southern gentlemen in a rural community. They used a scythe, a corn knife, a shovel and a butcher knife to express their real feelings concerning one another.

One combatant died on the field of battle, and the other, badly cut, died soon after he had been removed from the gory scene.

The Associated Press story told all the distressing and bloody details, and wound up with this sentence:

"It is thought these two men had some sort of a misunderstanding."

Maxims of the Maxim Man.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF THE HUSBAND.

BY ARTHUR FAIRFAX.

Author of "The Talker."

1. Thou shalt have no other god besides Me.
2. Thou shalt not raise in thine heart the image of any Hero of Footlight Flair, nor compare Me to him; for I, thy lord and god, am a Human Being, and it's all-fired lucky for Thee that I am!
3. Thou shalt not take the name of my Bank Account in vain. (P. S.—When thou payest Five and Twenty Simoleons for thy Hat, and Fifty measly Coppers for my Tie, it causeth me to Wonder if thou art really worth the Game. Remember, it taketh me Longer to Pray the world loose from a Quarter of an Hundred than it taketh you to Subtract that Sum from Me—and a Good Tie might Assist in Both Processes.)
4. Remember my Sabbath and keep it Cheerful; for six days have I labored and done all my work, but the seventh is the Sabbath of thy lord and god, and in it I will do no manner of work. I will not mind thy baby, listen to thy minister, nor write thy checks. For Six Days have I labored to Procure Divers things for thee from the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that in them is; so give me a Rest on the sabbath day and hallow it.
5. Honor my Stomach that my Days may be long in the Office into which my love for thee hath driven me.
6. Thou shalt not kill my love by Asking if I love thee, for this Question raiseth Great Doubts in my Mind.
7. Thou shalt not adulterate thy Talk with threats to send for thy mother; for threats from a Dependent are Funny.
8. Thou shalt not steal my Illusions by powdering thy nose or taking off thy hair in my presence. Remember that it is Illusions that I'm Paying for.
- (No man Liketh to pay Ten Dollars for a Silver Kick-knack and then find out it's Tin.)
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness except to be amusing. Deal Daintily in Fibs and leave the Useful Lie to me.
- (I need it in my business.)
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's Apartment, but glory in thy Flat. Thou shalt not covet her Husband's Earning Power, but help me to Make the Most of Mine.

If thou wilt ponder these things in thy heart and do them, then shalt thy Husband Meditate upon thee in the subway, and call thee a Wise and Comforting Woman.

[Washington Star:] There is a story circulating this week about a young man who awoke one morning with a dazed feeling that something great and epoch-making had happened to him, and who set down forthwith to write a letter.

"Dear Clara," he wrote. "You know what a poor memory I have and how I missed you, and so I am sure you will forgive the question I am going to ask you. I distinctly remember proposing to you last night, but I have completely forgotten whether you accepted me or not. Would you mind telling me?"

The reply came by return mail, and the young man feels no more that a new era has begun. This was the answer to his note:

"Dear Jim: I, too, have a poor memory, and in writing to me you have helped me out with a problem of my own. I distinctly remember saying 'No' to some one on the evening you mention, but I had forgotten to whom. Thank you for telling me."

Rhetorical.

[Puck:] The Cocked Hat and the Last Ditch met by chance one fine day.

"By the by," inquired the Last Ditch, "was anyone ever actually knocked into you?"

"Frankly, no," rejoined the Cocked Hat. "And you—did anyone ever really and truly die in you?"

"Positively no one!" confessed the Last Ditch, fully and freely.

With which exchange of confidences these devices of rhetoric, having regarded each other curiously for a moment, went their divers and separate ways.

Sit Right There.

[London Telegraph:] When the iceman came out of No. 37 he found a small boy sitting on one of his blocks of ice. "Here!" he roared, "git off of it!" The small boy raised a tear-stained face. "Was you ever a boy?" he queried faintly. "Of course I was!" fumed the iceman. "But—" "And did you ever play the truant?" cut in the youngster. "Of course I did!" snarled the iceman. "Now, then, you—" "An' when you got home, did yer father take a stick and—"

A lump rose in the iceman's throat. "Sit where you are, my little man," he gulped. "I understand."

Pat and the Priest.

[Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph:] Father Xavier O'Hanlon of Dubuque is famous for his wit, but a laborer on the railroad rather got the better of him the other day.

The laborer, one of Father Xavier's parishioners, was laying sleepers under the superintendence of an Italian, and the good priest smiled and said:

"Well, Pat, how do you like having an Italian boss?"

Pat smiled back as he answered:

"Faith, father, how do ye folks havin' one yerself?"

Cutting down the army and navy is essential that both should be maintained at high efficiency in view of the national defense, but the Democrats do not seem to care for that.

The best thing that can be done by Northern Republicans is to get up and behind President Taft and send delegates to Chicago that will absolutely guarantee nomination, no matter what the result may do.

Los Angeles Times

SCOPE AND AIMS:

Published regularly more pages of news and other reading matter and a larger volume of advertising than any other paper extant.

CONTRIBUTING FEATURES: Independent, untraded and unnumbered. THE LOS ANGELES TIMES is devoted to the great principles of liberty under law, equal rights in all fields of useful endeavor, industrial freedom, and the upbuilding of Los Angeles, the state of California and the great South-west.

AS TO LABOR: The Times is the unswerving friend of all honest toil and of untraded law-abiding workers everywhere; and while never denying the right of workers to organize lawfully, it is the unyielding foe of lawless, promiscuous, monopolistic and exclusive labor organizations, because they are the enemies of their own class and of the common industrial world. Our position is unchangeable and will be maintained. The long record of The Times as a just, sound, reliable and untraded newspaper during the period between August 4, 1890, and September 24, 1911, there was paid to local and well-qualified non-union workers in salaries and wages, the following aggregate cash sum of $4,286,718.17, nearly as much as labor.

The investigation of the Parental Home accounts during Adams's term in office is being continued by Auditor Lewis and a report will soon be made to the Supervisors. It was learned yesterday in the District Attorney's office that the result of this inquiry will probably be the abolition of the Parental Home and its consolidation with the Detention Home.

WHO WILL BE FEATHERWEIGHT CHAMP TONIGHT?

I have fought both men and here is the dope: Kilbane is faster on his feet, but in the use of his hands Attell has the margin by a mile. And then if Kilbane was as fast with both his hands and his feet as Attell he might lose because Attell has a much greater knowledge of the game and this knowledge will assert itself more as the fight warms up. Attell will look as though he had four hands against Kilbane's two most of the time.

Second Round of Invitation Tourney at Annandale.

Championship Golf Meet Is Scheduled for Today.

Inter-Club Match Day at the L.A. Country Club.

BY ALMA WHITTAKER.

The second round in the ladies' invitation tournament took place yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Kennett, Mrs. Elliot, Mrs. Chase and Miss Harley proved the winners of their various matches.

Mrs. Kennett played against her sister, Miss Mildred Smith, and after an excellent match, defeated her by 2 and 2. Both girls played good golf and the match was an equal battle, Mrs. Kennett proving slightly better on the greens.

Mrs. J. V. Elliot won her match against Mrs. O. E. Hodge of San Diego by 4 and 2. She has quite recovered her good game, as becomes the Southern California champion and the champion of Coronado, and is likely to do herself more justice than was the case in Tuesday's four-somes, for instance. She meets Mrs. Kennett in the semi-finals today, and a match should prove very interesting.

Mrs. Martin Chase had a very good match with Miss Tomlinson, subsequently winning by 3 and 1. Miss Tomlinson played a very pretty game, but not too much so, and some of her drives were excellent. They won hole after hole until the 14th, when they were all square. After that Mrs. Chase decided it was time to make her supreme effort to win. She took a 50-yard figure for the 15th, but it was the result of a slip on her splendid drive over the bunker, she should have got a 4. All the same, Mrs. Chase's shot game was unquestionably her best yesterday; she will have to improve her long game very considerably if she is to compete on equal terms with Miss Harley of Redlands in the semi-finals today.

Miss Harley won from Mrs. Van Dyke (who has recently joined the Los Angeles Country Club, and is its only representative in this tournament) by 4 and 1, but by no means as easily as was anticipated. Mrs. Van Dyke fought every inch of the way and was driving in fine style. They hit went out in 11, all square both in holes and strokes and at the 14th they were all square. Then Miss Harley resumed the play, and the contest was a very close one, and all that sort of thing. With the result that she slipped on her home course, and she is not a good golfer.

In the afternoon the consolation match took place, an 18-hole medal play, which was won by Mrs. MacLaughlin with a net score of 86, with a 27-stroke handicap. One and a half strokes a hole seems to be a fairly generous allowance, and no less than three holes were conceded. Mrs. MacLaughlin's play was very popular and the cup that goes with it is a most artistic piece of plate.

Miss MacLaughlin's play was very popular and the cup that goes with it is a most artistic piece of plate. The consolation prize is a very nice one, and the second consolation prize is a very nice one, and the second consolation prize is a very nice one.

And Mrs. Hodge, Mrs. J. B. Oliver (an imported Scotch golfer), Mrs. Harry Kearney, who attracted all eyes at last night's fancy ball as "Folly," Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Tatum and Mrs. Davis also took part.

Mrs. Hugh Livingston McNeil was also to be seen on the links in a most becoming golf costume, composed of a white knitted sweater and a long skirt of the kind to attract the criticism of the women, but tournament play is the strenuous for her, and she is a most successful player.

Mrs. Hodge's smart little red hunting coat also came in for compliments, and Mrs. Chase sprang another new hat on us, too, for another beautiful one. And what a very nice one it was. It was a very nice one, and the second consolation prize is a very nice one, and the second consolation prize is a very nice one.

TODAY'S GOLF PROGRAMME.

Amateur championship of Southern California opens at the Annandale Country Club at 9 a.m.

Thirty-six-hole qualifying round a.m. and p.m.

Semi-finals in ladies' tournament, 10 a.m.

Driving, approaching and putting contests, 2 p.m.

can be a champion of Coronado without being at all dangerous here. Hugo Johnston is very much here, as also is R. W. Salisbury. Then there are Harry Patten, F. D. Hudson, E. O. Osburn and Martin Chase, from Riverside, Raymond Hornby, Morris Phillips and Harold Palmer of Redlands, E. N. Wright, E. B. Williams and all the other Annandale competitors, and a very strong contingent from the Los Angeles Country Club.

Norman Macbeth, who holds the title, is said to be playing at the top of his game, and he is backed up by Judge Frederickson, Jack Jones, Arthur Brady, J. W. Wilson, George H. Schneider, Walter Cosby, Nat Williams, Edward Tuffe, L. T. Bradford and many lesser lights.

San Gabriel contributes H. N. Woodcock, R. L. Tatum, Condo Jones, and others, and each and all of the men from all the surrounding clubs feels himself a possible champion.

The links are in pretty good condition, considering the weather conditions. Indeed, H. N. was actually necessary to use a mowing machine yesterday on some parts of them, which is something to brag about when every other course is as bald as a billiard ball.

Entries and starting time for Southern California Golf Association championship which commences this morning at 9:30 on the Annandale Country Club links: Percy Thompson versus E. E. Armstrong, 9:30; Norman Macbeth versus Hugo B. Johnston, 10:30; Walker Salisbury versus A. B. Daniels, 11:30; Raymond Hornby versus Gale Thompson, 12:30; L. T. Bradford versus A. A. Chamber of Commerce Hears Glowing Reports.

Annual Meeting Precedes a Banquet Tonight.

With reports showing one of the most prosperous years in its history, the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday was marked with enthusiasm. Secretary Wiggins was cheered when he stated that 654 new members had been added and that the net assets of the institution are $266,754.43.

In addition to the report of Secretary Wiggins, the chairman of the various committees gave resumes of the past year's work. In the report of Secretary Wiggins much space is devoted to the work of the chamber in boosting for the harbor. He regards this work as one of paramount importance, and shows how the members can aid in securing deeper water, wharves, fortifications, etc.

The Owens River project is referred to as being second only in importance to the harbor.

Secretary Wiggins told the directors yesterday how various delegations had been entertained during the past year and how the advantages of the southernland had been presented to various bodies of importance that came to Los Angeles.

MORE LITERATURE.

The Atlantic City Board Walk Department has had an unusually brisk season," stated the secretary. "Some arrangement should be made for increased financial aid in this department if we are to keep pace with the institutions following our lead. We should have a series of descriptive and instructive pamphlets and leaflets for general distribution. The completion of the canal and increased trade facilities are thrilling the demand, and we should be in a position to supply it without hindrance or delay. Our lecture department has daily demonstrated throughout the year has been above the average."

The secretary's financial report is as follows: Receipts from dues and donations, $88,615.30; rent of space at hall, $3,375.50; outside accounts, $5,531.52; profit and loss account, $1,418.43, making a total of $102,940.75. The disbursements were: Salary and extra labor, $19,315.35; hall expense, $2,750.15; printing, postage, etc., $3,333.25; rent and insurance, $12,257.76; furniture and fixtures, $675.44; amusements and entertainments, $1,925.43; exhibitions and fairs, $1,477.77; superintendent's accounts, $597; miscellaneous, $1,190.45; treasurer's account, $7,868.55, a total of $122,185.44.

The assets and liabilities of the Chamber of Commerce as itemized are as follows: Inventory (Exhibit Hall), $18,355.50; rents uncollected, $150; dues in process of collection, $1,050; real estate, $447,500; office furniture, $675.44; cash on account receivable, $19,315.35; cash on hand, $7,144.43. The liabilities are the bonded indebtedness of $215,000 for the building and accounts payable, $855.83. This gives net assets of $266,754.43.

THE MEMBERSHIP.

The report of the Membership Committee as furnished by Lucius Chase, chairman, showed that the chamber now has a net membership of 2254, making it one of the great commercial bodies of the world. At the time the present committee assumed charge, 111 persons were dropped from the rolls because of non-payment of dues. This gave a membership of 2852, but by the action of the committee 654 new members were added. The present membership in the net total after the deduction of losses by death or resignation.

Dr. Walter Lindley, chairman of the Publication Committee, reported that more than 1,000,000 pieces of literature were handled by the committee during the year. The report shows how the chamber furnished photographs to traveling lecturers and thus helped to spread a knowledge of Southern California among the storm-bound easterners. Dr. W. W. Lee, chairman of the Committee on Laws, reported how the members investigated and recommended various matters referred to by the board of directors. The report sets forth that some of the bills passed by State Legislature and by Congress were heartily endorsed by the local chamber upon recommendation of this particular committee.

The Committee on County and Municipal Affairs considered a wide diversity of topics during the past year, according to the report of Chairman Percy H. Clark. Among the range of subjects were the Southern Pacific station, location of State Normal School, application for life boats at Venice, petition in regard to city annexation, Los Angeles Housing Committee, World's Peace Foundation, city improvements, Fourth of July celebration, storm drains, State highways in relation to the county, shipment of milk into this city, street car fares and numerous other topics.

OTHER REPORTS.

Among the other reports submitted were the following: Committee on Military and Naval Affairs, Andrew J. Copp, Jr., chairman; Committee on Mines, J. V. Vickers, chairman; Committee on Excursions, Walter Raymond, chairman; Committee on Amusements, etc., Frank W. King, chairman; Committee on Education and Horticulture, P. Q. Story, chairman; Committee on Exhibitions, A. W. Kinney, chairman; Committee on Manufacturing, J. D. Bower, chairman; and Committee on Commerce, Joseph Scott, chairman.

A financial report, going more into detail than that of the secretary, was filed by J. E. Flaherty, chairman of the Committee on Finance and Auditing. The reports were all placed on file and the board of directors transacted a lot of routine business. At the next directors' meeting H. Z. Osborne will preside as president. He will be given the gavel of authority at tonight's banquet.

MORE OF THE SAME.

The troubles of Maurice Orsatti and J. P. Minetti were supplemented yesterday when Orsatti went out a charge of having embezzled $70 from him in August, 1910. Minetti was formerly a clerk in Orsatti's steamship agency, but left and went to work with another concern. He denies the charge.

SEVENTY-FIVE CARLOADS OF ORANGES GO QUICKLY.

SIX million four hundred thousand luscious navel oranges and 800,000 sour lemons were auctioned off for $70,000 yesterday afternoon at the first anniversary sale of the Pacific Fruit Auction Market, No. 1329 Produce street.

Seventy-five carloads of the finest foothill navel oranges and five carloads of lemons were sold at the rate of one carload a minute. This is the largest amount on record ever offered in one auction. One day in New York last season, a total of seventy-one carloads, were offered in three different auction markets, but all three together did not equal yesterday's world's record consignment. Hundreds of leading citrus fruit buyers, brokers and shippers attended the big golden fruit sale. The oranges came from every Southern California district south of the Tehachas. Each carload sold contains upward of 400 boxes, with an average run of 200 oranges to the box.

The fruit was sold for spot cash, f.o.b. the Coast, and the grower will receive his money within forty-eight hours from the time of sale. This is an important item to the grower, as he does not run any risk of the fruit spoiling en route.

GROUND BROKEN TODAY FOR Y.M.C.A. CLUBHOUSE.

Mayor Alexander, Arthur Letts, J. E. Carr, C. B. Weaver, A. B. Benton, Dean Cromwell, B. H. Dyma and W. A. Reynolds to Perform Rite for New Building.

Ground will be broken at 10:30 this morning for the clubhouse at the new Y.M.C.A. Athletic Field on Stephen avenue. This exercise is the first public ceremony in connection with the Athletic Field secured by the board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association at an expense, which, when complete, with grand stands, clubhouse, two baseball diamonds, football gridiron, four tennis courts for men and two for boys and two handball courts for boys, will total $75,000. The field will also be equipped with a four-lap-to-the-mile running track and a straight-away under path of 220 yards.

The Glee Club of the Northwestern University, which is in Los Angeles for a concert at the Gamut Club tonight under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, will render selections.

The general public is very cordially invited to witness the ground-breaking exercise. A special invitation is extended to the members and friends of the association.

Mayor Alexander has written President Arthur Letts that he will be there to participate in the ceremony. Others who have been asked to take part include Bernal H. Dyma, chairman of the Physical Department Committee; J. E. Carr, chairman of the Building Committee; E. M. Willis, international secretary, Y.M.C.A. of New York; John Willis Baer, president of Occidental College; Dr. George F. Bovard, president of the University of Southern California; A. B. Benton, architect for the clubhouse; C. B. Weaver, building superintendent; Dean Cromwell, Dean William MacCormack, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, D. E. Lusk, general secretary, and W. A. Reynolds, physical director of the Los Angeles Association.

The ground at the four corners of the clubhouse will be broken by the following eight men, two of whom will be at each corner: Mayor Alexander, President Letts, J. E. Carr, C. B. Weaver, A. B. Benton, Dean Cromwell, B. H. Dyma, W. A. Reynolds.

This athletic field is expected to be one of the finest west of the Rocky Mountains. It has been purchased by the Y.M.C.A. board of directors in fulfillment of a promise made by President Letts that the directors would secure an athletic field when the local association reached a total of 5000.

NOTED JURIST ANSWERS CALL.

EX-JUDGE HATCH PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY.

Served on Superior Bench in Santa Barbara County and Was a Member of the Los Angeles Bar for Twenty-six Years—Heard Famous Perkins-Baldwin Case.

David Patterson Hatch, former Superior judge in Santa Barbara county, and for twenty-six years a member of the Los Angeles bar, died yesterday morning of Bright's disease, from which he had suffered for about two years. Death was, however, quite sudden, as the ex-judge had been at his office and at work only two days previous.

Members of the bench and bar of Los Angeles unite in saying that with the passing of ex-Judge Hatch the community is deprived of one of the keenest legal minds in the West. A deep thinker, philosopher and philanthropist, he had won the affection and respect of all who knew him.

Besides attending to his extensive law practice as senior member of the firm of Hatch, Lloyd & Hunt, ex-Judge Hatch spent much time in writing. His works have gained much commendation. Among the best-known of his books are "Scientific Occultism," a "Text Book of the Christian Hermit Philosophers," and "The Blood of the Gods," a book on temperance.

The ex-judge was born in Dresden, Me., November 22, 1846, and was married in 1874 to Ida Stipplin. He graduated from the Maine Wesleyan Seminary in 1871, and from the University of Michigan Law School in 1875.

After graduating from the university ex-Judge Hatch removed to St. Paul, Minn., and was admitted to the bar in the fall of 1877. He was elected District Attorney in Otter Tail county, Minnesota, in 1874, and moved to California April 1, 1875, settling in Santa Barbara.

He was elected to the superior bench in Santa Barbara county in 1880, and served for twenty-six years.

He was a member of the Los Angeles bar, who died yesterday at his home in this city.

Formerly of the Santa Barbara Superior bench and for twenty-six years a member of the Los Angeles bar, who died yesterday at his home in this city.

He was admitted to practice in California December 3, 1878, and admitted to practice in the United States District and Circuit courts in San Francisco, January 21, 1880. He was elected judge of the Superior Court in Santa Barbara county in November, 1880, and re-elected for the term of 1884-1886.

He later resigned and came to Los Angeles to practice, forming a partnership with Julius Bruseau. His first appearance as a judge in Los Angeles was when he was called here to the bench to hear the famous Perkins-Baldwin case, where the plaintiff, a woman, was awarded damages, up to that time, the highest amount of damages in the history of the bar of California, $75,000, against E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin.

In 1890 his health broke down through his assiduous attention to an extensive practice, and he left the city, going in a camping wagon from Los Angeles to British Columbia, where he lived in the mountains for five years. He returned to take up his practice again in the Tajo building. He was a leading Republican and an intimate friend of Judge Bordwell. His wonderful memory excited the admiration of members of the bench and bar. He could invariably name the section and case in points disputed without reference to his books.

Ex-Judge Hatch was a Mason and Knight Templar. He leaves a widow, two sons, Bruce Hatch of New York, formerly State Labor Commissioner in California, and David P. Hatch of Los Angeles, a daughter, Mrs. Ida Thurber of this city.

GOVERNMENT COUNTS PENNIES. Z. Sato, a Japanese, arrested in Glendale charged with defrauding the government out of $10, was before United States Commissioner Van Dyke yesterday and agreed to the order of Judge Wallbom removing him to Pueblo for trial under an indictment that has already been returned. Sato sent $10 by registered letter from Orchard, Col., to the Japanese Bank in San Francisco. The letter and contents were lost but Sato made a claim against the government for $10 of the money was paid over to him. The Japanese says that he is the man wanted and is willing to return for trial.

Chief of Police Adds Names to List of Citizens on the Millionaire Squad—Many More Needed.

"All hail to the Chief" was the chorus that went up yesterday morning when seven leading citizens were informed that Chief Sebastian had added their names to his list of well-known men to comprise his so-called "Millionaire's Squad."

Motley L. Flint, "Officer No. 1" of the squad, who was appointed about ten days ago, now has nine men in his command. The recruits of yesterday are:

Col. Fred E. Windsor, former chief of Warren, Pa., and State Commander of the Pennsylvania Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War.

Martin Way, a retired commissary sergeant, Eighth regiment, U. S. I. O. M. Oils, Norwegian vice-consul in Los Angeles.

A business man gave $5000 to the Young Women's Christian Association. His name was made public. Other contributions made $4000 total. Yet needed, $50,000.

The campaign of the Young Women's Christian Association for the purpose of paying off the debt and the work for another year, fairly under way, and great enthusiasm is being evinced by the building yesterday.

The incalculable benefit of sanitation to the city of Los Angeles cannot be told in figures, for nothing more than make a happy the life of one homeless woman it would fully repay every generous giver to its But it has multiplied this purpose a thousand fold and social and religious home of hands of girls who are precise in the world. The men yesterday was $400, and out number, of all acres and from a life, men and women may offer themselves, accepting the rule, as the number who have been a daily average in gifts of but at the close of yesterday's day, the total was but $16,000, however may be considered as well for the opening days, a money will come in more rapid the campaign progresses.

One of the active bodies of women and girls in the campaign that composed of employees department stores. They are in bands of ten, each band captains and the whole in command. They are soliciting funds among business women, and the be no duplication of work. They are good showing, the story of the different bands being by banners in the lobby of the city building at the close of each day. On Friday night a large number of the young women will give an entertainment in the association hall. They will appear in colonial costume, dance the minuet and other interesting features. Some of the interesting announcements concerning the campaign and its progress are reserved as surprises for evening.

An innovation planned for "Business Men's Day," when a body of business men will take part in the search of lucrative subjects. The date has not yet been fixed, but it will probably be early next week.

Miss Cora L. Tatham, former secretary of the local association and now general secretary of the association in New York City, has been here for the special purpose of helping in the creation of this fund. She has made valuable suggestions in the management of the campaign, and is hard at work helping to remove the last acorns of debt hanging over it.
